

AFTER PENTECOST

- The Season of Growth

After Pentecost is the season of growth. It is about us putting into practise all the inspiration from the preceding seasons of Christmas and Easter, and the times of preparation before each of these. After Pentecost is when the holidays are over, and it is time to get on with faith and discipleship and being the Church. Of course, all the seasons are about faith and discipleship. They all have growth as a part of them. Yet, the season of After Pentecost is the longest of the liturgical year and comes after the remembering of our being calling into being the Church by God as the Holy Spirit.

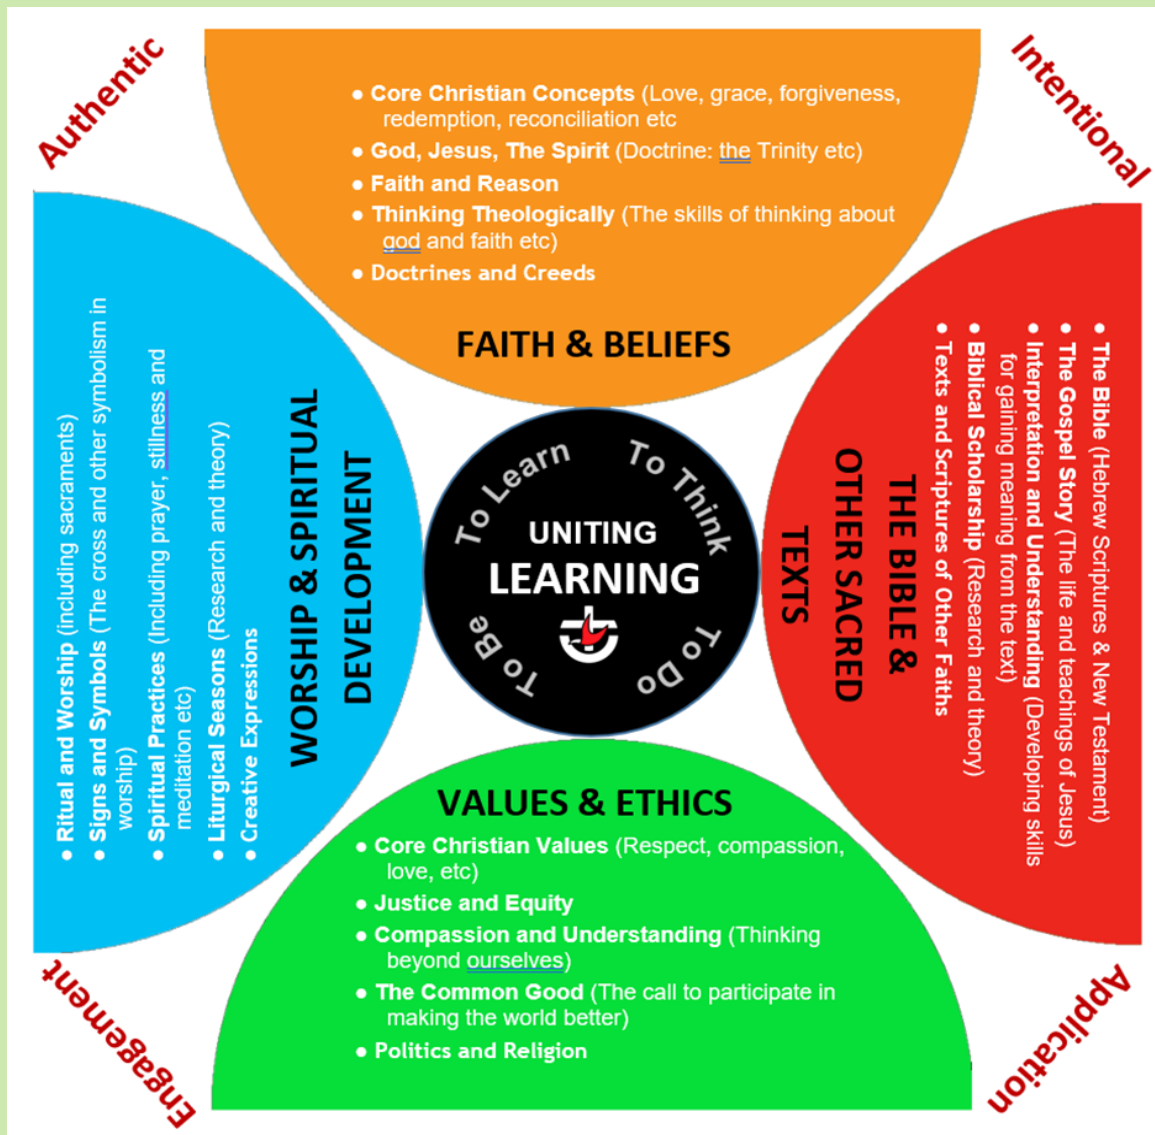

What then are we growing in this season of growth and how do go about it? This is an important question if we are to be more intentional in our faith and discipleship. First and foremost is to be established in our relationship with God.

Our spiritual growth and wellbeing is of the utmost importance because it drives all the rest of our being and doing. Jesus used the analogy of a vine with him being the vine and we as the branches. One could extend it to being God, the Creator and sustainer, as being the roots. If we are not connected to the vine, then we will not experience growth.

So, we need to prioritise our connection with God through prayer and reading the Bible, and we need to prioritise our connection with the rest of the vine/branches which is the Church. This is not just a social connection, but living spiritually together. Living spiritually together is not just gathering for what we often call "worship," although this is helpful and important because it involves being together in a shared spiritual experience. However, the idea of gathering together in more active and interactive ways where we share stories of our lives and how God is at work in them, share learning together through the sharing of ideas and understandings, sharing care and support together, and encouraging each other towards love and good works, for this is the fullest expression of our worship. Being the Church through living out our mission from God, through using our gifts and talents in ministry where we love our neighbour as ourselves, is the deepest shared spiritual experience. It is the bearing of fruit – which is the purpose of the vine branches. It needs the spiritual gathering for Church services and for meditation to resource the connection, but it also requires us to be in Christ by being the Body of Christ. Those who live in love and live out love, live in God and God lives in them. Our truest indication of connection with God, who we experience at work in us as the Holy Spirit, is to bear and practise the fruit of the Spirit.

As we live out the love of God to others, gathered as the community of Christ, and live out that love in our individual daily lives, then we need to be nurturing our faith and discipleship with learning and development. We need to be forming ourselves and being formed for ministry. We need to be discipling others as we are being discipled. We need to be learning about God through experience and reflecting on that experience. We need to be growing in our literacy about God, which is our theology.

We need to be growing through reading the Bible, but also growing in understanding about how to read it and interpret what we read in it. We also need to be growing in our knowledge and understanding of the practise of our spirituality. The whys and how it is important as well as the practising of the when and ways. The image with the four areas for growth and learning can be helpful in framing our intentionality. It provides depth and breadth to our intentionality and helps us avoid just focusing on one area of faith and discipleship.

Liturgy - λειτουργία [leitourgia]- is the work of the people. The liturgical season of after Pentecost gives us a lot of work to do. To do that work we have a lot to think about.

God Bless.

Jon

THANK YOU

The Property Committee would like to thank all the wonderful lawn mowing guys who turn up every few weeks to keep St. Matthew's gardens neat and tidy. Your time and effort is great appreciated.
